SOL. How a Mail-Order Clerk in a Dry-Goods Store Increased His Salary.

An examination was held Wednesday at Jefferson Market, New York, in the case of John F. Lilley, the head of the mail-order department of the dry-goods store of Simpson, Crawford & Simpson, on Sixth avenue, New York. James Skipton, the manager of the firm, said that Lilley came from England about two years ago, and manager of the first said the first said the first said was taken into the employ of the firm as porter at a saiary of $8 a week. His saiary was soon increased to $10, and when the position of head of the mail department became vacant t was given to him, and his salary increased to $12. He then was mar-ried and lived at No. 215 west Sixteenth street, New York. About a month ago the firm received an order from an out-of-town customer for a parasol worth $17. town customer for a parasol worth $17. They had nothing in stock of the kind wanted except one of a peculiar pattern. This was given to Lilley to send. On Wednesday last Mrs. Lilley called at the store to see her husband, and had with her the identical parasol, which was supposed to be on its way West. It was noticed by an employe of the firm, who spoke to the floorwalker, and an investigation was floor-walker, and an investigation was begun. It was ascertained that Lilley had been sending in orders for goods to had been sending in orders for goods to the different departments, purporting to come from customers, and he would re-ceive the articles at different places and then dispose of them. Having full control of the correspondence of the firm, he was able to cover his peculations. A short time ago he gave the head of the fancy-goods department an order for a gold watch worth department an order for a gold watch worth $107, and it was to have the initials "J. F. (his own) engraved upon it. When this fact came to light it was resolved to arrest Lilley, but he was found to have dis-ppeared.

Detective Price was then taken to Lil-lev's house by a member of the firm and introduced to Mrs. Lilley as a friend. Price saw on the wall a crayon portrait of Lilley. The detective then watched the house until he saw Mrs. Lilley go to the depot of the was delayed at Jamaica by a collision, and when he reached Bayside saw Mrs. Lilley in the station waiting to return to New York, but the baby which she had taken with her had disappeared. He then saw a with her had disappeared. He then saw a man with a baby inspecting the locomotive, and was convinced that it was the man he wanted. Lilley, his wife, and the baby took the train for New York, and when they reached Long Island City Price arrested Lilley. He accepted the situation with good grave, with his wife was much affected, as Lilley. but his wife was much affected, as Lilley had told her he was in trouble, but it was only a trivial matter about the parasol. It is estimated that he appropriated over $5,000 of property. He professed sorrow for his offence, and gave to the firm his bank-book on the Emigrant Savings Bank, showing a balance to his credit of $1,307. He also gave up his household furniture and everything he possessed. He had sup-ported in his family two of his wife's sis-ters and his own sister. He also sent mo-ney to his mother and her family in Ireland. He was held for trial.

The British Franchise Bill. (By cable to the Dispatch.)

LONDON, June 12.—In the House of Com-mons this evening Mr. Woodall's amendment to the franchise bill in favor of female suffrage was rejected by a vote of 271 to 135. Mr. Gladstone stated during the course of the debate that if the amendment was adopted the Government would not be answerable for the passage of the bill. A popular demonstration in favor of the franchise bill has been arranged to take place in London in August next. It will be the greatest popular display that has been made in London since 1867. The trades, agricultural and laborers' unions throughout the country are sending deputations to take part in the arrangements for the demonstration. The movement is meant to overawe the House of Lords.

Tabb, in Henrico county, rear the city of Richmond, containing 85 4-5 ACRES, more or less, lying south of the old Westham turnpike, now the continuation of Cary street, and lies just beyond and adjoining the new City Reservoir Park, and was conveyed to said P. M. Tabb by two deeds—one from R. C. Page and wife October 18, 1849, and the other from Archivald Thomas and wife January 1, 1851. The improvements consist of a comtortable BRICK DWELLING, containing six or eight rooms, with the usual out-buildings, and a well of excellent water. The laud is not only very valuable for farming purcoses (having been kept in a high state of cuitivation for a number of years), but is now considered the most destrable in that section on account of its proximity to the public Park, which has grown in the past year or two to be the most fashionable and attractive place near the city. The grounds lie beautifully, the place is healthy, and is destined to become very valuable; and this saie, altogether, offers more inducements for solid investment than any that has taken place in the neighborhood of Richmond for some time.

The place will be solid as a whole, or divided, as per plat in the hands of auctioneers, as may seem best on day of sale.

TERMS: Cash as to so much of the proceeds of sale as may be necessary to defray the expenses of executing the trust and to pay a note of $4.500, with interest at 6 per cent. from July 10, 1878. Ill paid; the balance upon such terms as the grantor in the deed may direct on day of sale.

Real Estate Agents, Auctioneers, and Brokers,

Office No. 5 north Tenth street. AUCTION SALE OF EIGHT BEAUTIFUL BUILDING LOTS

ON WEST MARSHALL BETWEEN HANCOCK, HARRISON, AND NORTON STREETS, ON TUESDAY, JUNE 17, 1884,

The above-mentioned and described LOTS have fronts ranging from 26 to 30 feet each by depths of from 131 to 144 feet to an alley.

The advantages possessed by these lots are many They are in the Immediate line of improvements. The grade of Marshall street has been established, thereby affording purchasers an opportunity of knowing exactly how to erect their dwellings. The vein of water in this locality is pure, and unequalled in any section of the city. Dwellings erected upon these lots would find ready tenants, owing to their nearness to the extensive shops of the Idebmond and Fredericksburg Railroad Company.

Come to the sale. Fancy prices will not be expected, as the lots must be sold for the purpose of paying off an estate's indebtedness.

TREMS: One third in cash: the balance at six and twelve months, 6 per cent. added, and secured by a trust deed.
